This easy-to-use Leader's Guide is provided to assist in conducting a successful presentation.

PREPARING FOR THE MEETING

Here are a few suggestions for using this program:

- a) Review the contents of the Fact Sheet that immediately follows this page to familiarize yourself with the program topic and the training points discussed in the program. The Fact Sheet also includes a list of Program Objectives that details the information that participants should learn from watching the program.
- b) If required by your organization, make an attendance record to be signed by each participant to document the training to be conducted.
- c) Prepare the area and equipment to be used for the training. Make sure the watching environment is comfortable and free from outside distractions. Also, ensure that participants can see and hear the TV screen or computer monitor without obstructions.
- d) Make copies of the Review Quiz included at the end of this Leader's Guide to be completed by participants at the conclusion of the presentation. Be aware that the page containing the answers to the quiz comes before the quiz itself, which is on the final page.

CONDUCTING THE PRESENTATION

- a) Begin the meeting by welcoming the participants. Introduce yourself and give each person an opportunity to become acquainted if there are new people joining the training session.
- b) Introduce the program by its title and explain to participants what they are expected to learn as stated in the Program Objectives of the Fact Sheet.
- c) Play the program without interruption. Upon completion, lead discussions about your organization's specific policies regarding the subject matter. Make sure to note any unique hazards associated with the program's topic that participants may encounter while performing their job duties at your facility.
- d) Hand out copies of the review quiz to all of the participants and make sure each one completes it before concluding the training session.

INSTRUCTIONAL CONTENT:

PERMIT-REQUIRED CONFINED SPACES: THE ENTRANT

- The entrant is the member of the confined space entry team who enters the confined space to perform work. The entrants are the only members of the entry team permitted to enter the space.
- Entering the space is defined any part of the entrant's body breaking the plane of an opening into the space.
- Entrants must receive training on confined space hazards, the safe use of equipment and PPE and the confined space entry procedures. An entrant must be able to demonstrate their capabilities before being permitted to enter a confined space.
- Entrants must also understand the specific hazards of every space they enter and be aware of any symptoms of exposure and warning signs that indicate the onset of dangerous conditions.
- While inside the space, the entrants must maintain communications with the attendant so the attendant can monitor the condition of the entrant and the operation's status.
- Entrants have the authority to call for an evacuation of the space and must do so when they recognize any sign or symptom of exposure to a dangerous situation or when any condition that violates the entry permit is discovered.
